Budget Action description:

This green sheet would add $218,000 GSF to the Executive Department to create new Office that addresses immigrant and refugee affairs, and would add two positions: a Strategic Advisor 2 and a Planning and Development Specialist 1 (P&D 1).

The purpose of the new Office is to facilitate the successful integration of immigrants and refugees into Seattle's civic, economic, and cultural life, to celebrate their diverse cultures and contributions to Seattle, and to advocate on behalf of immigrants and refugees. The Office will work with the Immigrant and Refugee Commission and community partners to define and achieve desired outcomes for City investments for immigrant and refugees, including setting specific measurable outcomes related to employment, public health, student achievement, citizenship, public safety, civic engagement, and protection of civil rights.

The Office will be dedicated to improving services and better engaging immigrant and refugee communities, in partnership with other City departments and government agencies, community organizations, and the private sector. The Office will be based on the principles of social justice and will support the City's Race and Social Justice Initiative. The Director of the Office would report to the Mayor, and would supervise the P&D 1 position. The P&D 1 position would staff the Immigrant and Refugee Commission, which would move to the new Office from the Seattle Office for Civil Rights.

The Council will propose legislation to name and create this Office by January 31, 2012, in consultation with the Immigrant and Refugee Commission, Seattle Office for Civil Rights and other City departments, and the community. In developing this legislation, Council and the Executive will work with these stakeholders to more formally define the duties and expectations of the Office and to develop a near-term work plan of activities and actions. The Immigrant and Refugee Commission may also provide advice during hiring process for Office staff.

Potential duties of the Strategic Advisor 2 position include:

- Launch initiatives to address identified issues in immigrant and refugee communities, and work to ensure that immigrant and refugee communities are included in all stages of development, planning, and implementation of major City initiatives;
- Provide advice to the Mayor, Council, and City departments on policy and program issues related to immigrants and refugees;
- Represent the City at events and meetings within immigrant and refugee communities;
- Evaluate the level of City services received by immigrants and refugees and develop strategies to improve comprehensive access to services for immigrant and refugee communities; and
- Advocate on behalf of immigrant and refugee communities.

Potential duties of the Planning and Development Specialist 1 include:

- Provide staff support for the Immigrant and Refugee Commission;
- Coordinate development and implementation of a comprehensive interpretation and translation policy across City departments;
- Develop and maintain a comprehensive listing of services for immigrants and refugees and the community-based organizations and government agencies that provide those services;
- Assist in developing coordinated outreach to immigrant communities across City departments through information-sharing strategies that include local ethnic media, technology, and meeting people in the community;
- Work with the Seattle Police Department's immigrant and refugee Advisory Councils, such as the Latino Advisory Council and the Muslim, Sikh and Arab Advisory Council; and
- Develop strategies to improve demographic data collection to help monitor Seattle's progress toward the goal of equal access to services, in ways that do not relate to immigration status.
